Integration coaching

---

We're at the end of the Reclaim your Inner Throne course. My hope and belief is that you can feel the impact of having been on this journey with us. It's been an honor to witness you transform. There is no doubt: This work is what I'm here to do. And your transformation is the reason I'm doing it.

The process of reclaiming your Inner Throne goes on, however. Life is an incredibly beautiful yet perilous journey which requires our constant wakefulness if we are to remain Sovereign beings in our own lives.

I have created a one-to-one coaching package that will help you further integrate the learning from this experience, so that the breakthroughs you have experienced not only get fully integrated, but end up serving as a mere foundation for the rest of the life journey you are about to go on.

It's an 8-week package and it includes:

- 2 x 1,5 hour consultations (to start)
- 3 x 1 hour consultations
- Ongoing e-mail access throughout the process (write me as much as you like)
- Customized practices for you to pursue

As you know, Reclaim your Inner Throne keeps growing, and new people bring in their gifts. If you are interested in a co-creation with us, this coaching package is a prerequisite, as it gives a transmission of the source of what we do, and includes coaching on your leadership.

Whether you want a co-creation with us or not, the price is still the same.

8-week integration package: $879

I look forward to working with you. And if you choose not to, good luck on the rest of your life's journey. It's been an honor to serve you, learn from you and getting to know you

Best regards,
